

Java Development

www.qat.com

Enterprise Solutions

QAT Global's team of Java architects and developers have extensive experience in developing business critical enterprise solutions that improve productivity and streamline interaction between staff and customers for a wide variety of industries including utility, finance, transportation, government, and banking.

- Business intelligence and analytics
- Business processes and productivity
- Enterprise content management
- Customer interaction, collaboration, and relationship management
- Corporate and customer portals
- Middleware

Our Java software development team endeavors to bring more to client projects than just programming; we work to be your true partner for Java development projects. Our team members are passionate about technology and solving your business challenges.

Secure, Reliable, & Scalable

QAT Global has provided Java development since 2001. This decade plus of experience has provided us with immeasurable technological and business domain expertise. The Java development team helps deliver solutions for a wide range of industries, including e-commerce, logistics, telecommunications, finance, government, healthcare, and software product development.

Our team of custom software developers can assist you in selecting the optimal platform and language for your business and help you integrate your applications within virtually any platform. The software development team at QAT Global has developed hundreds of successful custom software applications for our clients.

Contact Us

222 South 15th Street, Suite 1001N
Omaha, NE 68102

402.391.9200
402.391.1175